

What's the Impact? Connecting the Success Story with the Big Picture

Response

The Response section should describe what was done and for whom.

Description	Present?
Teaching methods were described.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Number of teaching methods described.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Target audience described.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Number of target audience reached described.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Principal partners, collaborators, contributors included.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Results

The Results section should focus on what happened because of a program. Using verifiable evidence-based data.

Description	Present?
Results are 1/2 page maximum	<input type="checkbox"/>
Knowledge gained identified	<input type="checkbox"/>
Skills increased identified	<input type="checkbox"/>
Describes what participants are doing different as a result of the program	<input type="checkbox"/>
Describes the environmental and/or economic and/or social benefits	<input type="checkbox"/>
Describes how data was collected to determine results	<input type="checkbox"/>

Relevance

The Relevance section should convince the reader of the need for the program by stating the relevant issues in the community.

Description	Present?
Describes problem to solve	<input type="checkbox"/>
Describes why it is relevant	<input type="checkbox"/>